

COMMISSION BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I Name

The name of this agency shall be the Washington State Charter School Commission (WSCSC), henceforth referred to as "Commission."

ARTICLE II Purpose

The Commission is an independent state agency that exists to authorize high quality public charter schools throughout Washington with an emphasis on schools designed to expand opportunities for at-risk students. The Commission ensures that the highest standards of accountability and oversight apply to these charter schools as provided in RCW 28A.710.070.

The Commission is one of two types of entities permitted to authorize public charter schools in Washington State. The total number of charter schools is only 40 for Washington State.

In furtherance of its responsibilities as a charter school authorizer under 28A.710 RCW, the Commission provides leadership and oversight that is consistent with national principles and standards of charter school authorizers and the provisions of Washington's charter school law.

ARTICLE III Membership and Responsibilities

Section 3.1 Commission composition. The Commission shall consist of nine members, no more than five of whom shall be members of the same political party. Three members shall be appointed by the governor; three members shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and three members shall be appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives. The appointing authorities shall assure diversity among commission members, including representation from various geographic areas of the state and shall assure that at least one member is a parent of a Washington public school student.

Section 3.1b Term of Commissioners. Members shall be appointed to four year, staggered terms, with initial appointments from each of the appointing authorities consisting of one member appointed to a one-year term, one member appointed to a two-year term, and one member appointed to a three-year term all of whom thereafter may be re-appointed to a four year term. No member may serve more than two consecutive terms.

Section 3.2 Reimbursement. Commissioners shall not be compensated for their service but may be reimbursed for travel expenses in the same manner as provided for in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Section 3.3 Meeting attendance and preparation. Members are expected to consistently attend and prepare for Commission and committee meetings, of which they are members, in order to be effective and active participants. Members are further expected to stay current in their knowledge and understanding of the Commission's projects and policymaking.

Section 3.4 External communication. Members of the Commission should support Commission decisions and policies when providing information to the public. This does not preclude Commission members from expressing their personal views, as long as they are communicated as such. The executive director or a Commission designee will be the spokesperson for the Commission in regards to media matters.

Section 3.5 Commission responsibilities. The Commission may meet in order to review any concerns presented to the Chair or Executive Committee about a Commission member's inability to perform as a member or for neglect of duty.

ARTICLE IV Officers and Terms

Section 4.1 Designation. The officers of the Commission shall be the chair, vice chair, and one member-at-large.

Section 4.2 Term of officers. The term of chair and vice chair and member-at-large shall be for one (1) year beginning May 1 and expiring on April 30. A vacancy in the office of chair or vice chair or member-at-large shall be filled by the Commission at the next regular or special meeting of the Commission to serve out the remainder of the term. The member elected to fill the vacant officer position shall begin service on the executive committee at the end of the meeting at which she or he was elected and complete the term of office associated with the position.

Section 4.3 Officer elections.

The chair, vice chair, and member-at-large shall be elected annually by the Commission at a regular or special meeting of the Commission. The election of the president and vice president may occur as a slate, with the vice president agreeing to stand as a candidate for president when the president's term expires. A Commissioner may serve a maximum of four (4) consecutive one-year terms in the same officer position.

ARTICLE V Duties of Officers and Commission Members

Section 5.1 Chair. The Chair shall call meetings of the Commission and shall preside at all meetings of the full Commission. The Chair shall delegate assignments and duties to other Commission members, manage all matters of the Commission, and perform such other duties as are incident to the office or are required by the Commission or by law.

Section 5.2 Vice Chair. In the absence or unavailability of the Chair, the Vice Chair shall perform all of the duties of the Chair, and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. The Vice Chair shall assist the Chair as the Chair deems necessary and shall have such powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Chair or the Commission.

Section 5.3 Member-at-large. The member at-large shall carry out duties as requested by the Chair and sit on the executive committee.

Section 5.4 Commission Members. Members shall fulfill duties and responsibilities as provided by law and delegated by the Chair and shall comply with the Code of Conduct attached and with Conflicts of Interest provisions provided by law.

Section 5.5 Committee Chairs. Committee Chairs shall report activities, recommendations or decisions of their respective committees to the full Commission and shall inform the Chair when items need to be placed on the agenda.

- f) The charter school performance committee shall provide the entire Commission its recommendations concerning corrective action, revocation and closure of Commission authorized charter schools.
- g) The charter school performance committee shall meet as needed.

Section 6.6 Scope, Authority and Mission. The scope of authority and mission of each of the Commission's Standing Committees shall be memorialized in a committee charter. Each charter shall be recommended for approval to the Commission by the Chair of the respective committee.

Section 6.7 Standing Committee Members and Officers. Each Standing Committee shall have a Committee Chair and a Committee Vice Chair. The Commission Chair shall nominate a slate of Chair and Vice Chair candidates for approval by the Commission. The Commission shall vote on the appointment of Standing Committee members. All members not appointed to a Standing Committee shall be an ad hoc, ex-officio member of that Standing Committee.

Section 6.8 Voting. Standing Committees can make a recommendation to the Commission upon the concurrence of a simple majority of the Standing Committee.

Section 6.9 Advisors/Consultants to Committees. Each committee may consult with or be advised by non-Commission members, as determined appropriate by the Committee Chair.

Section 6.10 Ad Hoc Committees. The Commission Chair may, as circumstances warrant, authorize the creation of an ad hoc committee for a discrete and specific purpose of interest to the Commission and shall appoint all members and officers of such ad hoc committee(s). The Commission shall approve the charge of any ad hoc committee. Such committee may be created for a definite time period or until its specific function has been completed, but shall not exist longer than one (1) year from the date of authorization unless specifically authorized by its charge.

Section 6.11 Investigative Committees. The Commission, as provided by law, may designate two or more members, but less than the number of members that would constitute a quorum of the Commission, to investigate matters concerning Commission business. The members designated by the Commission are required to report their resulting findings and recommendations to the entire Commission.

ARTICLE VII Meetings

Section 7.1 General Business Meetings. Meet monthly per pre-approved schedule by the Commissioners. This same body will set new schedule in September. The new schedule
