

Charter School Commission Moves to Recommend Re-nomination of Commissioners with Expiring Terms

At the December 5, 2013 Washington State Charter School Commission meeting, a motion was passed that would have the Commission recommend to each appointer (Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House) that the three Commissioners with expiring terms be re-appointed for an additional four-year term. Commissioner Chris Martin (Governor appointee), Commissioner Kevin Jacka (Lieutenant Governor appointee), and Commissioner Margit McGuire (House Speaker appointee) are the Commissioners with expiring terms.

The Commission welcomes public comments and asks that all comments be delivered to the Executive Director, Joshua Halsey, by January 11, 2014. Comments can be emailed or mailed to Director Halsey.
